AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

TWO (2) YEARS - This term consists of two years on each of Counts 3 and 4 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 3 and 4 of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall advise the probation officer of his entry into any business involving the soliciting or brokering or selling of insurance and advise the probation officer of those activities.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $2,318,232.53 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
IBEX Financial Services Inc. of California	$1,153,900.69
Universal Premium Acceptance Corporation	$1,164,331.84

USA vs. Lee Anthony CorletteDocket No.: 2:12-cr-00849-SVW-1

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after the defendant's release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $475, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself/herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, November 12, 2013. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at:

Roybal Federal Building
255 East Temple Street
Los Angeles, California 90012

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be designated to a facility in the Southern California area.

All remaining counts are dismissed.

The bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

The defendant's passport is ordered returned upon surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
